Privacy Policy

1. Registration

By registering with the online application system at the University Hospital of Ulm, you make your personal data available to us in application for a specific job and for the purpose of a general job search, and you thereby explicitly express your interest in employment at the University Hospital of Ulm. Registration is the application process’s default setting. If you want to apply only to a specific position, use the process described in section 2. You can view and update the data you have provided at any time. The University Hospital of Ulm will keep your data confidential in accordance with the Data Protection Act.

The University Hospital of Ulm will use your data in the course of searching for suitable candidates. It will never be forwarded to third parties outside the University Hospital of Ulm. Besides you yourself, the only other people with access to your data are authorized employees of the recruiting department of the University Hospital of Ulm. If your profile is a suitable match with a position available at the University Hospital of Ulm, your information may be shared with the appropriate institution or department head.

If you have not updated your profile for a period of 12 months, the University Hospital of Ulm may contact you by e-mail to request that you update your information. If you should not carry this out by the deadline given, your profile and all the data it contains will be deleted.

Please use only private addresses for your email and mailing address. The University Hospital of Ulm will only send information to private addresses.

2. Application

You also have the opportunity to apply exclusively for one particular position. In order to put this restriction into effect, you must label your application accordingly before submitting it.

When applying for a specific open position, please provide the University Hospital of Ulm with your personal data. It is your responsibility to ensure that this information is accurate and truthful. By submitting your application, you agree that your data will be used for the purpose of filling vacant positions. You can view and update the data you have provided at any time. The University Hospital of Ulm will keep your data confidential in accordance with the Data Protection Act.

Besides you yourself, the only other people with access to your data are authorized employees of the recruiting department of the University Hospital of Ulm, and those responsible for open positions or department heads.

You can withdraw your application at any time. After the application process has ended or your application has been withdrawn, your data will be deleted in accordance with the applicable statutory provisions, unless you release the registered data in under the conditions of the application. In this case, the process described in point 1 will be followed.

Please use only private addresses for your email and mailing address. The University Hospital of Ulm will only send information to private addresses.

3. Voluntary information

Any and all information that you provide via the online application system is given voluntarily. If, at any point during the process of using the application assistant program, there is information that you do not want to make available, the University Hospital of Ulm will treat that information neutrally.

In case of any questions, please contact service.recruiting@uniklinik-ulm.de.